

TAMMANY PETRIE

DIRECTOR

As the mother to a son born profoundly deaf and another son diagnosed with ADHD, Tammany knew parents deserved a better way to find the best support and resources for their kids.

In response, Tammany Founded Everyday Heroes Kids, and with her dedicated team, built Everyday Heroes Kids (EHKids), www.ehkidshealth.com, a pediatric platform connecting families with professionals and organizations in health, mental health, and education.

Parents can search on EHKids either by diagnosis or concern and be shown the resources they are looking for and those they didn't know existed. Profiles on EHKids are comprehensive and enable informed decisions at a time when it matters most.
